It has been a busy week for Mumbai [Images] police - most famously in the case of the gang rape of a young woman by six men who drove her for hours and sexually assaulted her in a car. The week started with them arresting two men for allegedly smuggling about 6.5 kg of hashish from Dhaka to Mumbai's Crawford Market and, in a shocking twist to an already horrific story, Hinduja Hospital in Andheri and the KEM hospital in Mumbai finally decided to give up on "keeping a tab" on the unclaimed body of the 23-year-old woman who died after she was raped
