This one's a real beauty, with a built-in mic and plenty of other features.I'm writing to you about the massive abuse that has been occurring in India in the past few weeks. I have been personally concerned about this since my trip to India in 2013, and have interacted with victims of human trafficking and forced labor time and again. The most serious concerns of human trafficking involve the abduction of minors and women from poor rural families and forced to work in the servitude of another. In India, we know that girls as young as 12 are forced into prostitution, and women working in domestic servitude are treated like property and frequently are sold into brothels or even beaten to death. Human trafficking is a global problem. Some estimates suggest that as many as 40,000 people are trafficked into modern day slavery annually. In the United States alone, human trafficking is on the rise. The Obama administration's efforts to combat trafficking include collecting information about human trafficking and helping law enforcement officials identify and rescue those who are trapped into slavery
