In addition to “HyperMotion Technology,” the gameplay engine also fully incorporates Artificial Intelligence to react to a player’s actions in order to create more responsive, natural-feeling gameplay. Full release notes can be found below. More information about the game can be found here. Goalkeepers Goalkeepers are no longer affected by lags in their overall goalkeepers control during a save. Players on the ball will now react more appropriately to being pushed out of their area by defenders and other players. Juggling Increased awareness of juggling in competitive and friendly mode. We have improved juggling by raising the speed of the ball after the initial release. Improved generalization of the ball speed and animation. Increased delay between juggling/rolling the ball and release of the second kick. The first kick of the ball has also been adjusted to be consistent with previous FIFA releases and the ball will now roll out rather than bounce from the back of the net. Artificial Intelligence Artificial Intelligence has been improved to adjust its behavior according to the individual player. Individual players will now perform more individually in their positioning on the pitch. Individual defenders will now try to improve the position of their man-markers. Improved anticipation and gap control within the backline. Improved goalkeeper tactical awareness. Improved crossing accuracy for both feet. Improved players’ perception of space on the pitch. Improved ball carrier detection. Improved handling of off-the-ball situations. Improved player tracking. Updated team coordination after take-ons. Improved attacker-defender reaction after a pass. Improved player positioning. Improved flick-on behaviour. Improved striker-defender reaction. Improved shot accuracy. Improved penalty taking accuracy. Improved goalkeeper handling of the ball. Improved goalkeeper anticipation. Improved goalkeeping skills. Improved offside and off-the-ball traps. Improved penalty taking anticipation. Improved penalty taking anticipation. Increased fullback play. Increased work rate and intensity of defenders. Improved dribbling action. Improved ball carrier behaviour. Improved goalkeeper defending. Improved touch. Improved player tracking in midfield. Improved player tracking in defense. Improved goalkeeper ability to read space.

Features Key:

- Live out your dreams – Living out your pro gamer’s life as both a manager and a player is brought to life with brand new Career Experiences.
- Discover and build your next team with the all-new Create-a-Club mode.
- Better FIFA gameplay, AI, player intelligence, and presentation – Gameplay is optimized for the PS4 system with more intelligence from the player’s perspectives, advanced AI, smarter tactical decisions, and brand-new presentation that is designed to immerse players in the game’s living-world atmosphere.
- Exceeding the hype – FIFA 22 introduces a cast of 22 Pro Legends – the top stars of the game. They'll be kicking your ass in Ultimate Team from day one. The result is more opportunities to acquire the greatest players in the world.
- Movement captures movement – Real-world data is used to create the FIFA 22 experience. Real-time captures from players as they make their way around the pitch during match play result in real-time motion that is used to power gameplay. Players no longer just look like they’re running when they’re actually sprinting. This is inter-connected with physics, stamina, ball control, and passing.
- Set your next move – Deeply customized interviews that occur between matches sets the scene for each footballer, letting players build the next chapter of their career.
- Get right back on the pitch – This year players get to change weather, track players, make the assistant referee call passes, and more. The entire game is brought to life with real-world movement and depth.
- Cross-platform play – FIFA 22 is the first football game to feature cross-platform multiplayer in the form of four-versus-four local and online matches. FIFA players can play against friends, as well as players across most other console platforms in the FIFA community. Play with your friends on your PS4 and PC in split-screen or online matches with up to 32 players per game.
- Additional features

Multiplayer – Four-versus-four online matches.

Collecting, customising and improving kits – Replicate the looks of your clubs and players by creating and customising your own kit sets. Tailoring your kit to impress in the opposition’s stadium lets you bring out your best
